IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
HOUSTON DIVISION

IN RE:

ATLAS ACQUISITIONS, LLC, et al

MISC CASE NO: 16-302

ORDER

Joel Tucker seeks a document production from Jeffrey Dunn and Poronia, LLC. Although Mr. Tucker should receive the documents, the Court will not upset the timing contained in the Court's Temporary Release Order. The Court recognizes the concerns expressed by Poronia and Dunn that Mr. Tucker may be using his document request so that he can tailor his response to the documents that he has been ordered to produce. If true, that would be unfortunate. The Court expresses no view. Mr. Tucker's production obligations should not be controlled or influenced by the responses to the request made to Poronia or Dunn.

Accordingly, the Court orders that Jeffrey Dunn and Poronia, LLC must turn over to Mr. Tucker's counsel all documents previously produced by Poronia and Mr. Dunn in this matter pursuant to the Original Show Cause Order (ECF No. 2). The deadline for compliance is April 22, 2016 at 5:00 p.m.
